Position-specific details and qualifications are outlined below.

Elementary Teacher, Grades 1-2

Sunrise Beach School is seeking a dynamic and experienced elementary teacher to join our faculty at the Olympia campus. The ideal candidate will possess a Washington State Teaching Certificate with a K-8 endorsement, or a bachelor's degree in another area. A minimum of two years of primary teaching experience is preferred, along with excellent communication skills and a growth mindset. This position requires a strong commitment to working within a faith-based community and a genuine passion for guiding young learners in their academic and spiritual growth.

Elementary Teacher (Various Grades)

We are looking for a dedicated and enthusiastic Elementary Teacher to inspire and educate students across various grade levels at our Olympia campus. The successful candidate will embody our school's values and demonstrate a deep commitment to fostering a Christ-centered learning environment. A bachelor's degree and relevant teaching certifications are preferred, along with a track record of effective classroom instruction and a willingness to engage in ongoing professional development.

Part-time High School History Teacher

We are excited to welcome a new part-time High School History Teacher to our team at the Olympia campus. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a strong devotion to academic excellence and a consistent daily walk with Jesus Christ. This position involves collaborating with the administration to select and implement a high school history curriculum, ensuring a Christ-centered approach to teaching, and submitting student grades in a timely manner.
